WHAT IS THE EBA?

The EBA is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010².

The mission of the Authority is to contribute to the stability and effectiveness of the European financial system through simple, consistent, transparent, fair regulation and supervision that benefits all EU citizens.

EBA's five strategic objectives are: to finalise and implement an effective and proportionate Single Rulebook, to foster financial stability in an economy transitioning towards sustainability, to enable an integrated reporting system for enhanced assessment and disclosure, to implement the Digital Finances package with DORA oversight and MICAR supervision, and to focus on innovation for the benefit of consumers while ensuring a smooth transition of the anti-money laundering.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

² Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 establishing a European Supervisory Authority (European Banking Authority), amending Decision No 716/2009/EC and repealing Commission Decision 2009/78/EC (OJ L 331, 15.12.2010, p. 1).

WHAT DO WE OFFER YOU?

At the EBA, we believe that highly qualified and motivated trainees add important value to our work.

In return, we offer you a unique hands-on experience into the heart of a European Union Agency whose mission is key in safeguarding the integrity and robustness of the banking sector to support financial stability in the EU.

You will gain valuable work experience and develop your employability skills that will help you in your future career.

You will benefit from working with a team of professionals from all over the European Union in a stimulating multicultural environment living through the five EBA values: Public service at our core, Excellence in everything we do, Trust in our relationships, Creativity to deal with challenges, Collaboration is our approach.

You will live in Paris. The French capital is one of the most inspiring cities in Europe. A walkable and well-connected city with close proximity to other countries in Europe, Paris offers a vivid cultural and culinary experience with its abundance of museums, architectural richness, sparkling monuments such as the Eiffel Tower, top designer shops, and beautiful parks.

At the EBA, we are all committed to diversity and inclusion. The traineeship programme is open to all eligible candidates regardless of their sex, age, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, religion or belief, disability, sexual orientation.

If you consider yourself to have a physical, mental, intellectual or sensory disability, please indicate any adjustments or arrangements needed, relating to your disability, to EBA-Traineeship-Applications@eba.europa.eu, so that the EBA can ensure your full and equal participation in the selection process.

The EBA, as an EMAS registered organisation, is committed to continuously improving its environmental performance and reducing its carbon footprint. For more information, please refer to <https://www.eba.europa.eu/about-us/sustainable-eba>.

WHAT IS THE TRAINEESHIP ASSIGNMENT?

The traineeship programme is designed to bring recent graduates with diverse backgrounds into the Authority to contribute to various projects and topics in all the services.

The nature of your work depends on the service you are assigned to.

You may, for example work in the field of data analysis, supervisory policy, consumers, law, human resources, communications, Information technologies, etc.

Your daily work may, for example, consist of attending and organising meetings, researching, analysing, drafting and editing various types of documents, supporting the management of projects, etc.

Traineeship at the EBA is offered for an initial period of 6 (six) months and can be extended for a further period of up to 12 (twelve) months, not exceeding a total duration of 18 (eighteen) months. The conditions of the extension are subject to the performance of the trainee and the further needs of the agency.

WHAT IS THE SELECTION PROCEDURE?

The received applications are screened by HR against the eligibility criteria listed in this vacancy notice. Candidates who do not meet all the eligibility criteria are excluded from the selection procedure.

³ Member States of the EU: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain and Sweden.

⁴ The knowledge is required at least at B2 level.

⁵ Candidates must have completed their studies and obtained their last education diploma no longer than three years prior the submission of their applications. The 3 years rule is not applicable for candidates undertaking PhD studies at the moment of their application for traineeship at EBA.

When an opportunity arises, eligible applications are provided to the hiring manager (Head of Unit/Director of Department) for assessment against the selection criteria listed in the relevant profiles, considering the candidates' preference indicated in the application, their areas of expertise and their competencies.

The hiring manager contacts the candidates directly, check their availability for an interview, which is held in English and remotely.

The interview aims to assess compliance with the selection criteria, motivation, the ability to communicate in English and the availability of the candidate.

HR ensures that a gender and geographical balance is maintained as best as possible in the choice of candidates.

Following the interview, the Department/Unit makes a recommendation to the Appointing Authority to Conclude Contracts (AACC) on the candidate(s) based on merit. The AACC makes the final decision on whom to offer the traineeship to. Selected candidates receive a letter of intent with a traineeship offer that includes a proposed start date for the traineeship. This traineeship offer is subject to the candidate providing supporting documents confirming their eligibility, in addition to the already provided diploma or relevant certificates.

Selected candidates must be able to provide the originals of all diplomas, or certified copies of all diplomas declared. Candidates whose university or post-graduate diplomas are not issued in one of the official EU languages must provide a certified translation of these documents in English.

Candidates are responsible for ensuring that they have the correct visa, where applicable, and that they obtain all the documentation required by the French authorities.

Candidates may not be recruited to any EBA Department/Unit where a conflict of interest might occur, irrespective of their academic and professional qualifications.

Candidates, who are not selected after an interview remain in the EBA's pool of interested candidates for future traineeship opportunities. These candidates will be considered where there is a position to fill that fits their profile and the EBA's business needs and budgetary situation. Candidates will remain in the pool of eligible trainees for 1 year after the submission of their applications.

At any stage of the application process, candidates may withdraw their application by informing the Authority by email. Such notification is to be sent to the email address stated in the relevant vacancy notice published on the EBA's website.

EBA ensures that candidates' personal data is processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725⁶.

There is no appeal procedure against the decision taken.

⁶ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39).
